Funksy Trio Sold Out

Chicago fans lined up in droves to purchase any remaining tickets for tomorrow night's exclusive appearance of the Funksy Trio at the Petrillo Band Shell, headlining this year's opening concert of the Lollapalooza music fest. Lead trombonist Mergel Funksy promises a spirited rendition of Yes, We Have No Bananas. On the drums, Mergel Funksy plans to "bang so loud that Simon gets a headache." Bass player Mergel Funksy exclaimed, "Hey, this is a really big fiddle! I can't even get it on my shoulder." The group, having practiced in Chicago, asserts, "It's a good thing Simon left his piano at home." When asked why there are three Mergel Funksys, they blamed it on Simon's schizophrenic imagination.
